The global export supply of food decrease 6-20%.

140 million more people fall into extreme poverty and food insecurity increases 20%.

Up to 265 million people facing acute food insecurity.

5.3 million to 24.7 million people may be unemployed worldwide.

Global South households cannot collect fuelwood for preparing food.

Obesity and diabetes are risk factors for COVID-19 mortality.

369 million children relying on school meals seek for alternative nutrition.

Greater impacts on women for hunger and malnutrition.

No access to improved sanitation and hygiene facilities for 2 billion people.

Global South households cannot collect fuelwood for preparing food.

Increased inequality in food consumption.

The global export supply of food decrease 6-20%.